

PARENT EDUCATION

Battling Bullies Today with speaker Jan Faull

Date:

Monday,
March 15, 2010

Time:

7:00 8:30 PM

Location:

Clark Elementary
Multi-Purpose Room

No one likes bullies and the attacks they make on their victims. Most children are neither bullies nor victims, most are bystanders watching or trying to ignore a bullying situation.

What can parents and teachers can do?

Jan Faull, M.Ed, a local child development and behavior specialist, will offer some answers to this burning question. She has written several books, taught for BCC parent groups, Evergreen Hospital and Overlake Hospital. She has a weekly column in the Seattle Times and speaks nationally to parenting groups.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear this local parenting expert give realistic advice on this topic that is becoming more prevalent in schools today.

CLARK ELEMENTARY PTSA

For more information, contact
Katheryn Morgan
Parent Ed Chair
Clark Elem. PTSA

Phone: 425-770-8099

E-mail:

kathmor@hotmail.com